SAY NO TO UNION-BUSTING AND GRAND JURY ABUSE IN D.C.

RALLY & MARCH

Saturday,
APRIL 16, 1977
12 Noon
McPherson Square 15th & K
15th and K Streets, N.W. in Washington, D.C.

The Washington Post Corporation wanted to increase the newspaper's profits from 9% to 15% so it forced a bitter strike and then got the legal system to intervene in the dispute so the pressmen had to fight the grand jury and the courts rather than the Washington Post. This abuse of the legal system is not isolated, and poses a serious threat to the rights of all working people. You could be the next victim.

After 18 months on the picket line, the union must face the trial of 15 pressmen. We need your help. By demonstrating on April 16 and packing the courtroom during the trial, you will be supporting not only the pressmen, but also all people who must work for a living. Join with us. Your participation is vital.

THE TRIAL BEGINS APRIL 18th ...
THE DEFENSE BEGINS WITH YOU!
