What a Holiday! It was truly a very gay holiday, if the response to our Christmas catalog is any indication. We expected a heavier-than-usual mail order response in December, but the daily delivery of postal sacks overflowing with orders far exceeded our expectations. Even though we transferred additional personnel to our mail order division during the month, and our employees worked overtime filling your orders, we still fell short of our usual three-day turnaround for shipping orders. Complicating matters further, both the mail service and UPS delivery service were running behind schedule as well.

Consequently, those who ordered in the latter half of the month may have experienced a delay in getting their shipments. For this, we apologize and assure you that we have taken whatever steps possible to make sure that no similar delays occur in the future. By the time you read this, we will be back on schedule, shipping all orders within three business days of receipt (and most within 24 hours). Thank you for your patience.

Baltimore Store Quadruples in Size

The Baltimore branch of Lambda Rising held a hugely successful Grand Re-Opening on December 8, 1990, attended by several hundred customers. The ribbon was cut promptly at 11:00 a.m. by Baltimore City Council President Mary Pat Clarke, who, along with the next 199 people in the door, was pleased to receive her free leather Lambda Rising bookmark.

The festivities were the culmination of months of hard work. The lease for the entire first floor of the building owned by the Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Baltimore took effect on April 1, 1990. Bids were solicited for renovations, for carpeting and for a new heating and cooling system from local gay-affirmative contractors, while a complete set of new fixtures was ordered. Once the contractors were selected, the work began in earnest. There were several months of disarray, dust and general confusion in the store, adding to the already exciting atmosphere of Lambda Rising/Baltimore.

It was the installation of the carpeting that made the first visible difference. A group of volunteers were called upon to dismantle the entire store to clear the floor for the carpet installers. This task took six people until 1:00 a.m. to complete. Once the old store, tiny as it was, was spread out to occupy the entire carpeted area, the size and scope of this undertaking began to be more visible. People had asked many times, "What are you going to put in the new store?", and now they really had their doubts. Many thought the expansion was completed at this stage, but a big surprise was on its way from Massachusetts!

On November 28, an eighteen-wheeler pulled up in front of the store. It was filled to the roof with the new bookcases and display fixtures. Again, a group of volunteers helped by unloading the entire truck in six hours, and beginning the long process of arranging the new fixtures in the newly renovated space. This continued for two more days before it was possible to hold the grand re-opening.

"The results are beyond our greatest hopes. There is a new sense of excitement in the store as people come in day after day and tell the staff how pleased they are with the new store," said Jack Garman, store manager. Many have commented on the way it makes the gay community of Baltimore seem more substantial. It is now possible to browse through the book selection more comfortably and more thoroughly than ever before. And there is more than double the number of books to choose from.

Library Contest Winners

Bruce Maddox of Austin, Texas, was the Grand Prize Winner in Lambda Rising's annual "Win a Free Gay Library Contest." Maddox had just finished reading "Secret Matter" by Toby Johnson when he received the good news. He said he had recently spent more time reading gay and lesbian novels and "cutting off the TV, which is really enjoyable." Since Maddox's prize was $1,000 worth of gay books and gifts, chances are his TV set won't see much use any time soon. Maddox is a member of the Austin Gay and Lesbian Political Caucus and plays drums in a locally-produced play called "I Pass for Straight." He purchases books by mail from Lambda Rising, and also from his local gay and lesbian bookstore, Liberty Books in Austin.

Our second prize winner, Gregory Shober of Haverstown, Pennsylvania, left this life earlier in 1990 due to AIDS-related complications. His mother, Priscilla Shober, accepted the prize, $500 worth of gay books, on his behalf and is donating the books in his name to the Delaware County AIDS Network Support Group to which Gregory had dedicated much of his time and energy. They will be used in that group's community service and outreach program. "I was very proud of my son," Priscilla Shober said, "and I know this is where he would want these books to go."

The winner of our third prize of $250 worth of gay and lesbian books and gifts was Brenda Y. of Lakeland, Florida.

Be sure that YOUR name and address are on our mailing list so that you, too, can be eligible for the next prize drawing December 10, 1991. All you have to do is place an order with Lambda Rising's mail and phone order division or simply send your name and address to us. Only one entry per name is permitted (duplicate entries are discarded) and no purchase is necessary. If you are already on our mailing list, it is not necessary to enter again — you will be automatically entered in the next drawing.

Staff Profiles

Jack Garman, the manager for Lambda Rising/Baltimore, is a native of the Washington area and began working for Lambda Rising in February, 1986, writing book blurbs for The Whole Gay Catalog. In the summer of 1986, Jack was made manager of the Baltimore store.

Jack currently enjoys writing political commentary and book reviews for the Baltimore Gay Paper. In his spare time he enjoys writing fiction and is currently at work on a novel about Baltimore.

"Because of the amazing cultural changes taking place in the gay community, I feel fortunate to be a witness and have a unique finger on the pulse of our vibrant and ever-changing community through Lambda Rising," Jack said.

Debbie Kachelries, the assistant manager for the Baltimore store, started working with Jack just a few weeks after he started as manager. Debbie is a native of Baltimore who loves reading, traveling, hiking, cooking and playing with her three cats, Bean Bag, Pye Wacket and Nijinsky.

Debbie is a former hard-hat steel worker who hung up her steel-toed work boots to pursue her love of people and books at Lambda Rising.

"I really enjoy working at Lambda Rising because it is gay and I like being able to use my knowledge of gay and lesbian literature to help others," Debbie said.

Nominations Accepted for 1991 Lambda Literary Awards

Lambda Book Report announced that nominations for the Third Annual Lambda Literary Awards were being accepted as of December 7, 1990. The Awards, recognizing excellence in gay and lesbian writing and publishing, will be presented during a gala banquet in New York City on Friday, May 31, 1991, during the American Booksellers Association Convention.

"The field of gay and lesbian publishing is continuing to grow and diversify as we get into the 1990's," said Jane Troxell, senior editor of the sponsoring publication. "The Lambda Literary Awards program, with its ever-increasing number of categories and awards presented, is designed to reflect the advances made by our community during the 1980's and to promote the well-being of gay and lesbian literature in the new decade."

The public is invited to nominate their favorite gay and lesbian books of 1990 in 18 categories: Lesbian Fiction, Gay Men's Fiction, Lesbian Non-fiction, Gay Men's Non-fiction, Lesbian Anthologies, Gay Men's Anthologies, Lesbian Mystery, Gay Men's Mystery, Lesbian & gay Humor, Lesbian Science Fiction/Fantasy, Gay Men's Science Fiction/Fantasy, Lesbian Poetry, Gay Men's Poetry, Lesbian "Debut" (for first published work, fiction or non-fiction, by a writer or editor), Gay Men's "Debut," Gay Publisher's Book Award (for a single book published by a gay men's press), Lesbian Publisher's Book Award (for a single book published by a lesbian press), and AIDS (a special category).

Books must have a 1990 copyright date in order to be eligible. Nominating ballots must be returned to Lambda Book Report offices by the February 15, 1991, deadline in order to be eligible for consideration.

Five finalists in each category will be announced nationally on March 1, 1991. Then 90 judges from across the country, representing a broad cross-section of the entire lesbian and gay literary community, will select a single book in each category from among the five finalists.

Award recipients will not be announced until the night of the Awards Banquet. Organizers predict a record attendance at this year's gala celebration, as it is being held in the acknowledged publishing capital of the world, and a special scholarship fund has been established by the sponsoring organization to help those who require financial assistance in order to attend the awards ceremony.

You are encouraged to take a moment to fill out your nominations on the ballot included on this page. You do not have to nominate a book in every category if you don't want to, just fill in as many as you would like and send it in to the address below.

For further information about the awards program or the banquet, please contact Lambda BOOK REPORT, 1625 Connecticut Ave., NW, Washington, DC, 20009-1013 or Phone the LAMMYS LINE at (202) 462-7924.

Peel-Off Stickers!

Brilliantly colored stickers for the car or anywhere! Makes a statement to those in the know!

This brightly colored orange lambda on royal blue background was the symbol designated by the Gay Activists Alliance of New York to represent gay liberation in 1970. It was adopted as the international symbol for gay and lesbian rights in 1974 by the International Gay Rights Congress in Edinburgh. (actual size 3.5 x 3.5 inches)

Homosexual prisoners confined to death camps in Nazi Germany were forced to wear pink triangles. They constituted the lowest rung in the camp hierarchy. Since the Holocaust, the pink triangle has become a symbol with which to remember the persecution and oppression of our people. "Never Again!" (actual size 3.5 x 3.5 inches)

A graphic variation on the pink triangle sticker, also symbolizing the persecution and oppression of gays and lesbians. The white circle offsets the triangle making it more pronounced. This works well on a car/truck's bumper, in a rear window, or wherever a statement can be made. (actual size 3.5 x 3.5 inches)

The colorful rainbow sticker is a more discreet statement. It is not as well known as the lambda and pink triangle and recently it has been adopted by other organizations such as the Rainbow Coalition. It represents the diversity of the gay and lesbian community and our inclusion in society. (actual size 3 x 4.5 inches)
