NEWS

- Jan. 5 Betty Coleman of the D. C. Nurses Association joined our last city-wide meeting and told us of the large number of nurses resigning from the Public Health Department. One of the nurses' objectives is to gain higher government classifications with or without having college degrees. Washington Women's Liberation will continue to pursue the health issue in D. C. by supporting the nurses.
- Jan. 6 D. C. Women's Liberation and children met with staff of HEW regarding child care in the U.S. Result: HEW learned the true meaning of child care and how women want federal funds allocated.
- Jan. 10 Site: Washington Hilton. The Kalorama Citizens Association and D. C. Police were hexed by W.I.T.C.H. (Women's International Terrorist Conspiracy from Hell). Kept from entering the meeting, the WITCHes cackled and screamed at all mention of Fascist tactics in dealing with crime.
- Jan. 13 Several members of D. C. Women's Liberation, Women's Strike for Peace, and Women's International League for Peace and Freedom got together and discussed plans for a general meeting of the many Washington women's groups. The first meeting was very exciting--pursuing common interests and "getting ourselves together."

MEETINGS AND OTHER EVENTS

We are currently looking for a house or apartment. We need donations of chairs, tables, mattresses, etc. to furnish it. Call Joanne, 234-3692, and she'll be glad to store the furniture until we move in.

"Everyone talks about motherhood..." Do you want to talk about it? Where does motherhood fit in with Women's Liberation? Is motherhood relevant... should we have children...with a liberated perspective how do we relate to mothers and children...just what does being a mother mean...do you have to be a mother to care about children? Contact Marcia Kallen, 726-4594, for information about further discussions.

- Jan. 18
Sunday A Women's newspaper is needed locally and nationally. Marilyn Webb would like to talk to women about a D. C. paper. If you are interested, come to a meeting at 11 a.m. on Sunday at Marilyn's, 1945 Calvert St., N.W. or call her for more details, 387-6436.
