

April 13, 1970

Dear Sister,

Enclosed is a list of three possible dates for a meeting of Northern Virginia Women's Liberation. Please indicate your first and second choices and return the card to us. We will notify you of the first meeting date.

It has been suggested that at our first meeting we discuss the desirability of holding a series of discussions on topics such as the family, dating, careers, men in "the movement", and strategy for change.

There are many opportunities for women or groups of women who wish to write articles on Women's Liberation. The following places may take articles: Annandale Free Press, George Mason College literary magazine, George Mason College newspaper, Off Our Backs, and Washington Women's Liberation wants a short thing on Northern Virginia Women's Liberation.

Some recommended books and publications on Feminism are: The Second Sex by Simone de Beauvoir, The Feminine Mystique by Betty Friedan, Century of Struggle by Eleanor Flexnor, Motive magazine March-April 1969 issue, and Off Our Backs - a women's news-journal.

In the struggle,

Northern Virginia Women's Liberation
